The spirit of Rum

At Clarabell's, we celebrate the spirit of rum—a drink with a rich and storied past, rooted in the Caribbean's heritage of sugarcane.

Our curated rum selection reflects this rich history and diverse flavour profile, with a special nod to Bermuda's own Gosling's, whose distilling roots date back to the early 1800s.

You can indulge in the exclusive Gosling's Papa Seal Single Barrel, a bespoke blend crafted especially for Rosedon Hotel. Or explore the depth of Gosling's Family Reserve, a rum aged for years to develop a rich, full-bodied flavour.

From the smooth elegance of Zafra 21 Years to the sophisticated blend of Ron Zacapa XO, our selection spans the finest rums from across the globe. Whether you are savouring the legendary Gosling's Black Seal, the heart of Bermuda's iconic Dark 'n Stormy, or sampling the diverse expressions from Bacardi, Clarabell's offers a rum journey that captures the essence of the Caribbean and the spirit of Bermuda.

*Rum was not just a drink.
It was a culture, a legacy,
a rebellion.*

Rum production began as early as the 17th century, when the first settlers discovered that fermenting and distilling molasses, a by-product of sugarcane, produced a potent spirit. The process of making rum involves fermenting sugarcane juice or molasses, distilling it, and then aging it in oak barrels. This aging process imparts rum's distinctive flavours, ranging from the light, fruity notes of a young rum to the deep, complex characteristics of a well-aged one.
